Aug. 13, 2010

Pursuant to ARS. Sec. 39-121 through 39-121.03, the Arizona Public Records Law, I formally request that you, in your official capacity, make available to me the following documents for review:

- Charging documents (indictment, direct complaint, etc.) for Casslyn Welch, case no. J-0801-FR-201000581.

As you know, this request is made in my capacity as a journalist for a non-commercial purpose -- specifically gathering and reporting news to the public.

If you can provide copies of the records electronically, please send them to me at this email address. If they can be made available by disk, I would be happy to make arrangements with you to pick up a copy. I will pay reasonable costs of photocopying or reproducing records, up to $100. If you anticipate that copying costs will exceed $100, please call me or reply to this email before incurring any excessive duplication charges.

As you know, the "public records" are broadly defined by Arizona law. All public records are presumed open to public inspection, absent a specific statutory exemption to the contrary. As the Arizona Attorney General's Office has observed, any doubts about the scope of the public's right of access "should be resolved in favor of disclosure."

If you believe that portions of the records sought are exempt from disclosure, the law requires that you segregate or redact those portions of the records and make the non-exempt records available for inspection and copying. If you believe that any of the records are not subject to inspection, please provide a brief written explanation of the basis and authority for withholding the records.

If you believe these records to be part of an "ongoing investigation" I request permission to review the records as they become available.

The Arizona Public Records Law requires that public bodies provide access to public records "promptly." Accordingly, I request that you respond by Aug. 24, 2010. If you will be unable to meet this deadline, please contact me as soon as possible so we can discuss the reasons for any delay.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.
