Presiding Judge Charles W. Gurtler, Jr. announced today the appointment of Doug Camacho to the position of Court Commissioner for the Mohave County Superior Court with a start date of July 13, 2015.

Doug Camacho currently works in the Mohave County Attorney's office and has been admitted to the practice of law in Arizona since July, 2001. He received his law degree from Loyola University Chicago School of Law and was previously in private practice in Missouri and Arizona before joining the County Attorney's office.

"Doug brings an extensive knowledge of the criminal justice system with him to the bench and is a very knowledgeable, dedicated and able attorney. The numerous letters of public support the Court received overwhelmingly highlighted Doug's impeccable character, professionalism, strong work ethic and community involvement." stated Presiding Judge Gurtler. "This was not an easy decision as all the candidates have excellent skills and abilities, however, the consensus among the judicial leadership was Doug Camacho is the best fit."

This appointment was made to fill the vacancy created with the upcoming retirement of Commissioner and Judge Pro-Tempore Julie Roth of the Superior Court.
